I owe you a thank you. You sent an email out about the house in san Diego the organization was offering. On Friday we are going to receive the keys to that home. If you would not of put that information out I would not have known. It is a life changing opportunity ... so thank you.

Subject: If you know a Iraq or Afghanistan

If you know an IRAQ or AFGHANISTAN veteran with a PURPLE HEART, or know of anyone who might know someone that fits that description. Military Warriors Support Foundation is giving away 100 homes across the country to combat wounded vets.
